There were four written responses, all positive. The only response in the multiple questions section that had a low outcome was the question on e-learning. However e-learning was not practised at all in this course. Instead online notes and example sheets with solutions were provided on a traditional website (the feedback was very positive about that arrangement).